

Hello, My name is Tony Vela. I specialize in creating dynamic visuals for film, games, and digital media. With a strong foundation in modeling, texturing, lighting, animation, rendering, and compositing, I bring creative ideas to life with technical precision and artistic flair. Whether working independently or collaborating with studios, I'm committed to delivering high-quality, visually compelling work that tells a story and leaves a lasting impact.

Explore my portfolio to see a range of projects spanning environments, characters, visual effects, and more.