

C. Robert (Bob) Miller
P.O. 206
McAllister, MT. 59740

406-581-8438

Experience:

- 1991: Worked as construction coordinator for Lacota Moon, a Fox Network production. Responsibilities included; budget and purchasing, hiring and associated administrative tasks. Helped design and build a cabin in Teton Park and worked with park officials for satisfactory removal after shooting. Worked under the direction of Peter Wooley production designer.
- 1990: Worked as a foreman on Stone Cold, titled The Brotherhood during shooting. Responsible for running a crew that built interior and exterior sets. Built break away doors, windows and installed break away sky lights. Worked under the direction of Tom Morris, construction coordinator
- 1989: Worked as lead carpenter on Enid is Sleeping, shot in New Mexico. Responsibilities included, layout of sets and construction. Worked under the direction on Chip Radaelli, construction coordinator.
- 1988: Worked on Great Balls of Fire as a carpenter. Worked on set layout and constructed many large interior and exterior sets. Worked under the direction of James Barth, foreman.
- 1987: Worked as a carpenter on Amazing Grace and Chuck. Helped construct a full scale working model of a missile silo. Worked under the direction of James Barth, foreman.